

Mark Dickson

Associate

“Don’t find fault; find a remedy” - Henry Ford

Leadership/Industry Experience

Mark Dickson is a senior facilitator with TRI Corporation and co-director of 5Echo, a strategic alliance partner of TRI Corporation based in Malaysia. He specializes in leadership development, executive coaching, consulting and facilitation, and has delivered TRI Corporation simulation sessions in Malaysia, India and China.

Throughout his career, Mark has successfully balanced management responsibilities with hands-on training and coaching delivery for middle to senior management teams. Most recently, he was the head of learning and development for Qatar Airways, where he managed the development of more than 35,000 staff deployed worldwide. Earlier he launched his own talent management organization in Australia. Mark has served as a director for PricewaterhouseCoopers, managing leadership and staff development in Asia Pac, and launched his career as a training developer and facilitator in 1995.

Past Positions

- Co-director, 5Echo (Malaysia)
- Head of learning and development, Qatar Airways (Qatar)
- Director, Executive Talent Management Australia (Australia)
- Director, PricewaterhouseCoopers (Thailand)
- Captain, Australian Defence Force (Australia)

Distinctions

Mark has received numerous commendations for his efforts, energy and enthusiasm in a range of high profile projects and roles.

Education

Bachelor of Further Education and Training - University of Southern Queensland, Australia

Personal

Mark is currently based in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, and travels globally for a select clientele. He enjoys fitness, music and good company.

Contact Information

E-mail: mdickson@5echo.com

LinkedIn: <https://my.linkedin.com/pub/mark-dickson/0/131/47>

Twitter: @mark225581